

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH POLICY 09-04-09

CATEGORY: STUDENT AFFAIRS
SECTION: Registration and Records
SUBJECT: Student Service Indicators
EFFECTIVE DATE: February 14, 2018 Revised

I. SCOPE

This policy establishes the rights of the University to provide or withhold services for financial, academic, disciplinary, or other reasons.

II. POLICY

The University of Pittsburgh has the right to withhold services if a student defaults on any financial obligation, until repayment arrangements have been made which are satisfactory to the office or department to which the debt is owed. The University of Pittsburgh also has the right to cancel future registrations when a student defaults on any financial obligation.

The University also has the right to withhold student services as a result of disciplinary action, less than minimum academic progress, failure to provide data required either by the University or by state or federal regulations.

Outlined below are the current service indicator codes, a brief description of the indicator type and its designation as a positive or negative indicator.
